The Law Student Associate status was created by the Oregon State Bar (OSB) to offer law students a way to join their future community of peers while still in school.

Lawyers throughout Oregon recognize the Oregon State Bar as their main professional organization. Law Student Associates will build professional contacts through bar activities while demonstrating dedication and interest in the profession. This display of dedication to the state bar organization is especially helpful for out-of-state law students, whether planning to stay in the state or not.

Associate Member Benefits

Oregon New Lawyers Division publications sent to your email.

These publications are invaluable to any student preparing themselves for a career in the legal profession.

Notice of upcoming CLE programs.

If you join a section as a Law Student Associate, you will receive notice of upcoming Continuing Legal Education (CLE) programs in areas of law related to your section. These programs provide an excellent, informal setting for learning and networking with lawyers in your field of interest.

OSB Section membership.

Several OSB Sections allow Law Student Associate members. For information about a specific section go to www.osbar.org/sections. You do not need to become a Law Student Associate to join these sections, and you do not need to join sections to take advantage of the other benefits of becoming a Law Student Associate. Section membership fees are based on a calendar year and cannot be prorated.

OSB Bulletin delivered to your home.

The OSB's monthly magazine includes opinion pieces, profiles of Oregon lawyers, practice-oriented articles, classified ads, and bar news.
